

Registration is open: Let's go!

Bike to Work Day is Wednesday, June 27.

Register today to show your support for biking in the region.

Register now for your chance to win prizes like concert tickets, bicycles and AAA memberships.

Refer your friends for a chance to win even more!

Register now!

Bigger and better than ever.

You'll find hundreds of bike-loving stations around the region that will be serving up great food, drinks and cool swag.

Find a station

Bike today for a better tomorrow!

Bike to Work Day is brought to you by Way to Go, a program of the Denver Regional Council of Governments. We'll help you plan your route, estimate your time, even give you tips on combining your bike route with bus or rail. Contact us!

FAQ

How do I register?

It's simple! Go to the Bike to Work Day website.

I participate in Bike to Work Day every year. Why do I have to register again?

We clear our databases each year and ask users to re-register. By having participants register each year with their current home and work locations, we can better represent regionwide interest in bike commuting to local, state and federal decision-makers.

Why isn't the website recognizing my email and password as a registered user?

Although previous participants' email addresses remain on our mailing list, neither emails nor passwords are saved in the registration database.

Denver Regional Council of Governments
1290 Broadway, Suite 100, Denver, CO 80203

You are receiving this email because of your past participation in Bike to Work Day or the Way to Go partnership.

Preferences | Unsubscribe

 Like

 Tweet

 Share

 Forward