Station Organizers

Are you hosting a station?

Ensure participants experience your station.

Active bike corridors (ABCs) offer low-stress cycling route options. Check out the ABC routes on the station map for a full view of prime placement opportunities.

Here's how to post your station.

Company Coordinators

Are you up for the business challenge?

Our toolkit has tons of ideas and tips on how to promote Bike to Work Day to your company.

Once you register your company you are automatically enrolled in the Business Challenge. We score using an effort index, which promotes friendly competition between similar-sized organizations. See how we score.

If you are a larger company, you can even promote some friendly competition among departments.

Hurry and register yourself and your company!
